CYBER RISK MATTERS

The latest insights from Gallagher's Cyber Risk specialists

Welcome to our latest edition of Cyber Risk Matters — your quarterly update from the Cyber Risk Management Practice at Gallagher, dedicated to bringing you the latest news and insights from the cyber risk landscape.

In this edition, we look at the devastating ripple effect of systemic cyber incidents, examine the role of regulation for artificial intelligence (AI), and highlight the specific cyber vulnerabilities of the healthcare and charity sectors.

Plus, we welcome you to register for the final part of our 2024 State of the Nation webinar series, 'The Digital World in 2025' and to take advantage of a one-month free trial of Gallagher's Cyber Defence Centre.

The Cyber Risk Spiral: How to Safeguard Against Systemic Cyber Events

In today's interconnected world, a single system failure or cyber attack could wreak havoc on multiple entities in seconds — including your business. We examine the impact of common vulnerabilities and exposures (CVEs) and what 'continuous monitoring' should involve.
